YOUR ITINERARY

DAY 1 ~THURSDAY~ JUNE 6

LONDON

Arrive in London's Heathrow Airport where you will make your own way to London and to your hotel for the next four nights. (Transfers are not included, but can be arranged at additional cost).

The great British author Samuel Johnson had it right when he wrote of London:

"You find no man, at all intellectual, who is willing to leave London. No, sir, when a man is tired of London, he is tired of life; for there is in London all that life can afford."

London is the birthplace of modern theater and a global cornerstone of art and culture. There is an endless list of world-class museums, monuments, buildings, churches, and historical sites. With a population of just under eight million, (one-eighth the population of England, Scotland, and Wales) London is Europe's largest city, spreading across an area of more than 620 square miles from its core on the River Thames. But to many travelers, it never really feels big, as each of the 32 boroughs possesses a character, lore, and rhythm all its own. There is the heraldic splendor of Westminster, the chic of artistic Chelsea, the architectural elegance of Belgravia and Mayfair, the cosmopolitan charm of Soho and the East End, and of course the theater scene of the West End and its fringes.

Begin your exploration and discovery of London proper on your panoramic tour featuring major London sites such as Knightsbridge and perhaps the most famous retail therapy haven of them all, Harrods. See also Hyde Park, Piccadilly Circus, Trafalgar Square, Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey, River Thames, and the Tower of London.

Tonight, enjoy a welcome dinner at a local restaurant to get better acquainted with your fellow travelers (no drinks are included).

DAY 2~ FRIDAY~ JUNE 7

LONDON

Your first visit of the day will be to the London Stadium where you will have the opportunity to take a Behind the Scenes tour (subject to venue availability) in advance of the baseball match. The stadium was originally built for the 2012 Olympic Games and has since become home of Premier League soccer club West Ham United. The stadium has been transformed into a baseball field ahead of the MLB London series. On the pitch, the football markings have been scrubbed away, with the US sport taking precedence. As baseball became its latest inhabitant, the stadium was almost unrecognizable.

Take a guided tour of the iconic London Stadium. Your 60-minute experience will include visits to the West Ham United FC locker room, players' tunnel and pitch side areas, panoramic views and much more.

Next, explore the religious and cultural landmark of Westminster Abbey, home of countless royal marriages and coronations. The Gothic masterpiece of Westminster Abbey has been at the heart of British history since the formation of the Abbey by Edward the Confessor in 1065. The Abbey became the coronation church for the English monarchy in 1066, was transformed into the modern stone abbey in the reign of Henry III, and has since been the venue for countless magnificent, joyous, and sometimes unfortunate royal events. In modern times, the marriage of Prince William and Kate Middleton, the coronation of Queen Victoria and Queen Elizabeth II, and the funerals of the Queen Mother and Princess Diana have etched the Abbey into the common memory of billions around the globe. A visit to Westminster Abbey takes in such highlights as the Coronation Chair, the medieval Lady Chapel Museum, containing a collection of royal effigies, and the Abbey Gardens, which whisk you away from the hubbub of the city.

End your day at the Tower of London, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and home to nearly 1,000 years of history and intrigue. The Tower itself has been used, at various points throughout history, as a palace, barracks, military stronghold, zoo, and prison. You may recognize some famous detainees of the prison, including Sir Walter Raleigh, Anne Boleyn, and Guy Fawkes. During your tour, learn about the gruesome torture that went on within its walls, view the crown jewels of the British Royal Family (valued at over 25 billion USD), and chat with the Yeoman guards, who you cannot miss with their distinctive white ruffs. Afterwards, explore the neighborhood and enjoy lunch on your own.

Schedules, accommodations and prices are accurate at the time of writing. They are subject to change.

Tonight's dinner will be at a local pub/restaurant (no drinks are included).
Overnight at your choice of venue described above. (B,D)

OPTIONAL POST EXTENSION TO OXFORD & STRATFORD UPON AVON

DAY 5~ MONDAY~ JUNE 10

LONDON/OXFORD

Bid farewell to your fellow tour members who are returning to the USA and prepare to continue your trip as you depart London and journey to Oxford, famous worldwide for its prestigious university, the oldest in the English-speaking world.

En route visit the Blenheim Palace, a masterpiece of Baroque architecture and a World Heritage Site that once served as home to the 12th Duke of Marlborough and his family. Sir Winston Churchill was born at Blenheim Palace in 1874. A grandson of the 7th duke, he was also a close friend of the 9th Duke and Duchess. Winston spent a considerable amount of time at the palace throughout his life and proposed to his wife Clementine in the Temple of Diana. The Blenheim Palace was used as one of the filming locations in the movie The Young Victoria.

Off Oxford High Street and opposite Magdalen College, this 17th-century converted coaching inn was often visited by the famous novelists J.R.R. Tolkien and C.S. Lewis while being fellows of Oxford University. The historic Mercure Oxford Eastgate Hotel has bright air-conditioned rooms that have internet access and a TV with satellite channels. Bathrooms have rainfall showers and free toiletries. The onsite restaurant, The Eastgate Brasserie, features local cuisine. Mercure Oxford Eastgate Hotel is a good central base for exploring Oxford, only a five-minute walk to the city center. Numerous colleges, museums and punting on the river are a short walk away.

DAY 6~ TUESDAY~ JUNE 11

OXFORD

Oxford is a beautiful city of stunning architecture, history, and culture. You'll find ancient and modern colleges, fascinating museums, and galleries, and plenty of parks, gardens and green spaces in which to relax. During your tour, you will view some of the 38 colleges and six permanent private halls that make up Oxford University. Stop to see the Venetian-inspired Bridge of Sighs which connects two parts of Hertford College and the Bodleian Library, one of the oldest libraries in Europe.

The rest of your day is at leisure. Enjoy time to explore this ancient city, and have lunch on your own at the bustling local market.

Overnight at The MERCURE EASTGATE OXFORD HOTEL. (B)

DAY 7~ WEDNESDAY~ JUNE 12

OXFORD/STRATFORD UPON AVON

In the morning, you will find yourself in Stratford-Upon-Avon. This unmistakably Tudor town is the birthplace of the author of the most quoted lines in the English language – William Shakespeare. Here you will find typically kitschy experiences – medieval recreations and Bard-themed tearooms, some of which are humbling – Shakespeare's modest grave at the Holy Trinity Church, and others which are awe-inspiring.

A distinctive 16th century, half-timbered house is where the great bard William Shakespeare was born, grew up, and lived with Anne Hathaway and his children for the first five years of their married life. Today it is a literary shrine for millions of pilgrims per year and offers a glimpse into the life of Shakespeare through the artifacts and memorabilia of a number of exhibitions, one of which includes a copy of the only known portrait of the playwright.

Discover the real romantic life of William Shakespeare, as you explore the thatched cottage and gardens, once the home of his wife, Anne Hathaway, and her family. Eighteen-year-old William spent much time courting Anne, a woman six years his senior, in the beautiful grounds of the cottage. The stunning gardens showcase traditional Tudor planting, giant willow sculptures, and a heart-shaped lavender maze and woodland trails. Within the cottage there are many original pieces of furniture and an exhibition on Tudor courtship. The cottage is located just over one mile from Stratford-upon-Avon in the hamlet of Shottery.

OXFORD/LONDON

You will be transferred to the airport today as you complete your exploration of this area, taking with you all the wonderful memories of its interesting culture and history. (B, Meals Afloat)

OPTIONAL POST EXTENSION TO BATH

LONDON/STONEHENGE/BATH

Bid farewell to your fellow tour members who are returning to the USA and prepare to continue your trip as you depart London and journey to Bath, famous worldwide for its imposing architecture and Roman remains.

En route visit Stonehenge, one of Britain's most enduring icons. Its original purpose is unclear. Speculations suggest that it was a temple made for the worship of ancient earth deities; that it was an astronomical observatory for marking significant events on the prehistoric calendar; that it was a sacred site for the burial of society's elite in ancient Britain. While we can't say with any degree of certainty what it was for, we can say that it wasn't constructed for any casual purpose. Only something very important to the ancients would have been worth the effort and investment that it took to construct Stonehenge.

Your day ends upon arrival in Bath, where you will check into your hotel and enjoy dinner on your own.

Your home for the next three nights, the boutique Hotel Indigo Bath, is set in the heart of Bath City center, just a stone's throw away from the Bath Abbey, Roman Baths and Pulteney Bridge. The hotel is designed to uniquely reflect the local culture, character, and history of the surrounding area. Set within a Georgian building dating from the 18th century, this elegant hotel has 166 individually furnished rooms equipped with Hypnos beds with luxury Egyptian cotton linen, heated floors, Nespresso coffee machines, high speed Wi-Fi and a variety of channels on a 40" flat screen TV. En suite bathrooms with tubs or showers, have hair dryers and bathrobes. The stylish restaurant The Elder, serves up classic British cuisine with a twist, and the hotel's chic and contemporary bar is the perfect place to unwind and let the expert team of bartenders pour you a drink.

BATH CITY TOUR

This morning, enjoy a walking tour through Bath, famous for literature, romance, and historic architecture. Also renowned for its ancient Roman baths, the city is home to the only natural thermal hot springs you can use in Britain. Due to its hot springs, the city was established as a spa by the Romans sometime in the AD 60's about 20 years after they had arrived in Britain (AD 43). The well-preserved Roman Baths themselves are below the modern street level. There are four main features, the Sacred Spring, the Roman Temple, the Roman Bath House, and the Museum which holds relics recovered from the Roman Baths. The City of Bath was inscribed as a World Heritage Site in 1987. In addition to the Roman Baths, the city has a variety of theaters, museums, cultural and sporting venues, as well as two universities and several schools and colleges.

The rest of your day is at leisure to explore Bath on your own.

Overnight at the HOTEL INDIGO BATH. (B)

BATH/SALISBURY

Today you will visit the county of Wiltshire. Drive to the town of Salisbury and travel back in time while wandering around Salisbury's Old City Centre.

Here you will find one of the finest medieval cathedrals in Britain. Started in 1220, Salisbury Cathedral was completed by 1258, with the spire, the tallest in England (404 feet) added a generation later. This fact makes Salisbury unique among medieval English cathedrals in that it was built within one century with no substantial later additions. Built to reflect the glory of God in stone and glass, it has been a setting for over 775 years for great occasions and huge colorful processions as a majestic and awe-inspiring church.

You will enjoy a guided tour, which includes the ground floor of the cathedral and its chapels, The Cloisters and The Chapter House, which displays the original copy of the Magna Carta. If you are up to it, you may also opt to embark on a climb up the tower to enjoy the spectacular views as you explore the roof spaces and tower. You will climb the 332 steps by narrow winding spiral staircases to reach to the foot of the spire 225 feet above ground level. From here you can see up into the spire through the original medieval scaffold, which was used in its construction, and from the outside you can see over the city and surrounding countryside.

Return to Bath in the late afternoon where you will have the balance of your evening at leisure.

- All event ticket sales included in the tour package are final. THERE ARE NO REFUNDS, CHANGES, OR EXCHANGES. THERE ARE NO EXCEPTIONS.

These cancellation fees are also in addition to any fees imposed by airlines.

REFUNDS: While Classic Escapes uses its best endeavors to ensure that all anticipated accommodation is available as planned, there is no claim of any nature whatsoever against Classic Escapes for a refund, in whole or in part, if any accommodation or excursion is unavailable and a reasonable alternative is not found, or if the Traveler is unable to use any service provided in the itinerary.

CHANGES: Once your tour is reserved, changes to the itinerary are possible subject to the availability of air or land space at the time of your request. Should there be any change fees imposed by any airlines or ground operators, or additional costs incurred due to the availability of any space, these costs will be invoiced to you and you will be responsible for payment thereof.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS: Should you wish to make additional travel plans, including specially arranged pre- or post-tour extensions different than those offered in conjunction with your tour, a service charge of $150 per person (over and above the cost of the services required) will be assessed.

DOCUMENTS

PASSPORTS: All individuals departing from the United States of America must be in possession of a valid passport. Please check that your passport is valid for at least 6 months beyond your intended return date. It is your responsibility to ensure that you have valid travel documentation, including but not limited to passports and visas, which meet the requirements of immigration and other government authorities at every destination. You are responsible for confirming with the United States Department of State or the representative government agency of the country to which you are traveling to confirm the requirements for visas and/or other requirements for admission to your destination. Any fines, penalties, payments, or expenditures incurred as a result of such documents not meeting the requirements of those authorities will be your sole responsibility.

REAL ID: Beginning October 1, 2021, if you plan to use your state-issued ID or license to fly within the U.S., it is your responsibility to make sure it is REAL ID compliant. If you are not sure if your ID complies, please check with your local state Department of Motor Vehicles or visit www.tsa.gov/real-id.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS: It is the responsibility of each Traveler to obtain and carry a valid passport, visa(s), and all other documents required by applicable government regulations. When traveling domestically or internationally, the U.S. Transportation Security Administration (TSA) and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) advise that everyone carry acceptable identification in order to board a flight. Acceptable identification can be found at <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/acceptable-ids>. The name, date of birth and gender that appears on the identification card must exactly match the same such data that is listed on airline ticket(s) and booking records. You acknowledge any failure to strictly comply with these requirements may result in denied boarding or an undue delay at an airport security checkpoint causing Traveler to miss flight(s), and subsequent scheduled travel bookings on cruises and tours.

Travel documents include, without limitation, airline tickets, hotel vouchers, tour vouchers, or any other document (whether in electronic form or otherwise) used to confirm an arrangement with a service provider. Travel documents may be subject to certain conditions and/or restrictions such as, but not limited to, being non-refundable, non-date-changeable, and subject to cancellation and/or amendment fees. Travel documents cannot be transferred to another person to use. All airline tickets must be issued in the name of the passport/photo identity holder. An incorrect name on a booking may result in an inability to use that booking and the booking being cancelled. Any errors in names, dates, and timings may result in an inability to use that booking and the booking being cancelled. Any errors in names, dates, and timings on your documentation will be your responsibility if we are not advised at the time of booking. Please reconfirm your flights at least 24 hours prior to departure.

PRE-DEPARTURE INFORMATION: Upon receipt of your registration and deposit, we will send you an electronic pre-departure packet containing all the information you need to prepare for your tour, including the complete itinerary, packing checklist, required documents, insurance information, etc.

FINAL DOCUMENTS: Electronic final documents and air e-tickets will be sent to you approximately two weeks prior to departure, provided all monies have been paid in full.

TRANSPORTATION

AIR TRANSPORTATION: Your program does not include international airfare. If you require assistance, contact Classic Escapes.

FREQUENT FLYER MILEAGE: Check on the airline's website to enquire who their partners are. Obtain frequent flyer mileage on any of these carriers. Present your frequent flyer card for all flight check-ins and keep the boarding passes until you receive a statement with the mileage credit.

TRANSFERS: Roundtrip airport transfers are included in the tour for guests arriving on group flights. If travelers make their own air arrangements, they will be subject to extra transfer fees.

FLIGHT CONFIRMATION: We strongly suggest that you reconfirm exact flight times with the carrier prior to departure. Air travelers are required to check in at least 2 hours prior to departure time for domestic flights and 3 hours for international flights and must report to the gate at least 30 minutes prior to departure time. Failure to comply may result in the loss of the seat to another passenger.

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS: Federal law prohibits passengers from bringing hazardous materials on the aircraft. Federal law forbids the carriage of hazardous materials aboard aircraft in the passenger's luggage or on the passenger's person. A violation can result in five years' imprisonment and penalties of $250,000 or more (49 U.S.C. 5124). Hazardous materials include explosives, compressed gases, flammable liquids and solids, oxidizers, poisons, corrosives, and radioactive materials. Examples: Paints, lighter fluid, fireworks, tear gases, oxygen bottles, and radiopharmaceuticals. There are special exceptions for small quantities (up to 70 ounces total) of medicinal and toilet articles carried in the passenger's luggage and certain smoking materials carried on the passenger's person. For further information, each passenger should contact the relevant airline representative(s) on their itinerary. Restrictions on hazardous materials are listed <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/prohibited-items>.

INSECTICIDE NOTICE: Some countries require insecticide spraying of aircraft prior to a flight or while you are on the aircraft. We recommend that you refer to the Department of Transportation's list of airports in countries that require airlines to treat the passenger cabin with insecticides prior to the flight or while on the aircraft available at <https://www.dot.gov/office-policy/aviation-policy/aircraft-disinsection-requirements>.

BAGGAGE & FEES: Additional fees for baggage may apply. Please contact your airline or refer to its website for detailed information regarding its checked baggage policies. On average, international flights from the USA allow one piece of checked luggage, not exceeding 50 pounds, plus a carry-on piece not exceeding 15 pounds; however, we always recommend that you check your airline's policy just before departure, as luggage limitations are always subject to change. There may also be luggage and weight restrictions for your destination and that information will be forwarded to you with your pre-departure material and also listed on your final documents.

AIRLINE CLAUSE: The airlines concerned are not to be held liable for any act, omission, or event during the time the passengers are not on board their planes or conveyance. The passengers' tickets in use by the airline or by other carriers concerned when issued shall constitute the sole contract between the airlines and the purchaser of these tickets and/or passengers.

DELAYS: We cannot be held liable for any delays or additional costs incurred as a result of airlines not running to schedule. Any additional land or air fees imposed on account of airline delays will be borne by the traveler.

Classic Escapes is not responsible for providing you with this information. Travel carriers and local authorities at travel destinations may require specific testing prior to boarding and/or upon arrival at your destination, including, but not limited to, a temperature check as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. You may be denied entry onto your carrier and/or entry upon arrival at your destination or be required to self-quarantine at your destination and upon your return to the United States. You must comply with local government regulations. Any additional costs are your responsibility. Check the State Department Web site <http://travel.state.gov>, for relevant information relating to travel to specific destinations, and the Center for Disease Control <http://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/> relating to health issues related to travel.
