DAY 4~WEDNESDAY~ NOVEMBER 5

BANGKOK/PARO, BHUTAN/THIMPHU

Return to the airport for your flight to Paro where upon arrival, you will be met and escorted you to the hotel in Thimphu, the modern capital town of Bhutan. The drive takes you through the winding road with lots of beautiful hamlets. Upon reaching Thimphu, check-in at your home for the next two nights, Hotel Druk.

Enjoy lunch at the hotel and then drive to the Royal Textile Academy. Weaving is an integral part of the culture and tradition of Bhutan. With the aim to conserve, restore, and document this living art, the Royal Textile Academy of Bhutan was set up by the queen mother, Her Majesty Ashi Sangay Choden Wangchuck as a non-government, non-profit, organization. Inaugurated in 2001, the academy is also a national centre for educating young students in textiles, fabric design and museum studies. It serves as a centre for tourists, introducing the nation's masterpieces to its visitors, while preserving Bhutan's weaving traditions.

Next, visit the National Institute offering courses on the 13 traditional arts and crafts of Bhutan, all ranging between four to six intensive years of training. Zorig Chusum plays an important role in the 'Preservation and Promotion of Bhutan's Cultural Heritage', which is one of the four main pillars of the Gross National Happiness philosophy, which Bhutan is globally renowned for. In addition to learning an array of art forms, such as painting, stitching, and carving, it is fascinating to witness the skill and discipline imbibed in the institute's students as well as the spectacular art they create.

Last for the day is at the Jungshi Paper Factory, perched high on a hillside overlooking the Thimphu valley, about ½ a mile away from Thimphu city. The factory makes high quality handmade paper using the bark of the Daphne and Dhekap tree. A variety of styles are made with beautiful textures and prints using pressed flowers and leaves. This kind of paper, called Deh-sho, was originally used in monasteries for manuscript and prayer books.

Built in 1974, Hotel Druk was one of Bhutan's original guest hotels, located close to Clock Tower Square and Memorial Chorten in walking distance from many shops and markets. All 51 individually furnished rooms have recently been renovated, and feature comforts such as fireplaces and heated floors, and air conditioning. Bathrooms have rainfall showers, shower/tub combinations, and free toiletries. There's a restaurant and a spa, plus a gym, a conference hall and a bar. Free in room Wi-Fi access.
Overnight at the HOTEL DRUK, THIMPHU, in a deluxe room. (L, D)

DAY 5~ THURSDAY~ NOVEMBER 6 THIMPHU

Start your day with a visit to a massive golden Buddha sitting atop a hill in Thimphu. Meaning Vajra-throned Buddha, the gigantic Shakyamuni Buddha statue, filled with 125,000 smaller Buddha statues, each like the Buddha Dordenma itself, is made of bronze and gilded in gold. At a height of 169 feet, it is one of the tallest Buddha statues in the world. The statue itself symbolizes Bhutan's commitment to promoting peace and spiritual well-being, and it represents the essence of Buddhism in Bhutan.

Hike on a trail that will take you through a beautiful forest patch towards Changangkha Lhakhang. The hike provides magnificent views of the Thimphu valley below. This trail is often used by His Majesty the fourth king as his mountain biking trail.

You will stop for lunch at a local restaurant.

Continue your drive to the National Memorial Chorten, a well-known landmark in Thimphu, built in 1974 in the memory of the third King, Jigme Dorji Wangchuck who is popularly regarded as Father of Modern Bhutan. This four-story structure was built to be seen as the most visible religious landmark in the Dragon Kingdom. It serves as an important place of worship for Thimphu residents, as well as devotees from other parts of the country. Within are carvings of mandalas, statues, and religious teachings.

Next, stop is at the Royal Takin Preserve, a wildlife reserve area for Bhutan takin, the national animal of Bhutan, located just 10 minutes away from Thimphu city. This large, shaggy and hoofed mammal has a bit of mythology tied to it. Legend has it that the animal was created by the great Buddhist yogi, Drupa Kunley or 'the Divine Madman'. This particular species of takin is found only in Bhutan and western Arunachal Pradesh. Originally a zoo, the fourth king decided to disband it since keeping animals in cages did not align with Bhutan's environmental and religious beliefs. The animals were released into the wild, however the takin was too tame to survive, and wandered around the streets of Thimphu. This led to the making of the Royal Takin Preserve. Now the animals are kept in a large enclosure where visitors can observe them.

Embark on a multi-sensory experience as you pass the vibrant stalls of Thimphu's Farmer market, where most of Thimphu's population and many valley dwellers converge on the bustling market. A wide range of foodstuffs and local arts and crafts are sold at the market. Towards the evening, stroll through the Craft bazaar. Overnight at the HOTEL DRUK, THIMPHU. (B,L,D)

DAY 6~ FRIDAY~ NOVEMBER 7 THIMPHU/PARO

After breakfast, drive back to Paro, a historic town situated at 7,382 feet, with many sacred sites and historical buildings scattered through the area. It is home to many of Bhutan's oldest temples and monasteries, the National Museum and the country's only airport. Mt Jhomolhari (24,035 ft) reigns in its white glory at the northern end of the valley. Its roaring glacial water plunges through deep gorges to form the Pa Chu (Paro River). Paro is one of the most fertile valleys in the Kingdom, producing a bulk of the locally famous red rice from its terraced fields.

Continue with your visit to the National Museum of Bhutan housed inside the revamped circular Ta-dzong building, an ancient watchtower above the Paro Dzong. This unusual round building is said to be in the shape of a conch shell. The original building was constructed in 1656 but the building was converted into a museum in 1968. The necessary infrastructure was created to house some of the finest specimens of Bhutanese art, including masterpieces of bronze statues and paintings gathered from different parts of the country. The museum has 13 galleries covering Bhutanese Buddhism, ceremonial scroll paintings, prehistoric and religious items, arms and armor, natural history and crafts.

Upon arrival, drive straight to visit Ta Dzong; a watch tower built to defend Rinpung Dzong during the inter-valley wars of the 17th century. Since 1967, the Ta Dzong has been serving as the National Museum of the country. It holds a fascinating collection of art, relics, religious thangka paintings, natural history, and Bhutan's exquisite postage stamps. The building's circular shape comes from its defensive origin.

Continue to Paro Dzong, one of the most impressive and well-known dzongs in Bhutan. One of the finest examples of Bhutanese architecture, it is also known as the Ringpung Dzong, which means 'fortress on a heap of jewels'. The dzong was built in the 16th century on the foundation of a monastery built by Guru Rinpoche, who arrived here on the back of a tigress during his crusade from Tibet to Bhutan more than a millennium ago. It was used on numerous occasions to defend the Paro Valley from invasions by Tibet. The Dzong was not destroyed in the massive 1897 earthquake, but it was almost burnt to the ground by a fire in 1907 and was rebuilt the following year.

Check-in and have lunch at the hotel. After lunch, you will drive to visit the Kyichu Lhakhang which is one of Bhutan's oldest and most beautiful temples. The main chapel has roots as far back as the 7th century. Legend has it that an ancient king built 108 temples in a single day to pin down a vile demoness; these temples span from Bhutan to most of eastern Tibet. Out of the 108, two lie in Bhutan, and Kyichu Lhakhang is said to hold down the left foot of the demoness. The central figure of the temple is a large statue of a Sakyamuni Buddha.

Afterwards, pay a visit to a local Farmhouse. The beauty of Paro valley is embellished by clusters of old-fashioned farmhouses. Bhutanese farmhouses are very colourful, decorative and traditionally built without the use of a single nail. All houses follow the same architectural pattern. A visit to a traditional farmhouse is educational and offers a glimpse into the lifestyle of a farmer.

Your luxurious hotel is situated on the edge of the Paro River, offering panoramic views of the Eastern Himalayas. All 59 individually furnished rooms are equipped with modern amenities. Contemporary marble bathrooms come with a glass-enclosed rainforest shower and separate soaking bathtub with designer toiletries. The hotel's two restaurants, Bamboo Chic and Latest Recipe and Latitude bar offer dinners and exquisite seasonal experiences. Treat yourself to a body treatment, reflexology, or a body scrub at Le Meridien Paro, the onsite spa. Free in-room Wi-Fi. Overnight at LE MERIDIEN PARO, RIVERFRONT in deluxe rooms. (B,L,D)

DAY 7~ SATURDAY~ NOVEMBER 8

PARO~ HIKE TO TAKTSANG

After an early breakfast, take a hike to Taktsang Monastery, the unofficial symbol of Bhutan, popularly known as “Tiger's Nest” perched on the side of a vertical cliff at 9,842 feet. Legend has it that Guru Rinpoche (Guru Padmasambhava) flew to this location from Khenpajong, Tibet on the back of a tigress and subdued a demon. He then meditated in a cave here for three years, three months, three weeks, and three hours way back in the 700's and emerged in eight incarnated forms (manifestations) and blessed the place. Guru Padmasambhava is known for introducing Buddhism to Bhutan. Today, Paro Taktsang is the best known of the thirteen caves in which he meditated. The hike (4-5 hours) is “moderately difficult” meaning hard for people who rarely hike, but not so tough for experienced hikers in decent physical condition. The Tiger's Nest is indeed everything people say it is – a destination worthy of any “bucket list.”

A picnic lunch will be organized at the base of the Taktsang.

The rest of the afternoon is at leisure to relax, or if energy permits, explore Paro town to shop for souvenirs. Overnight at LE MERIDIEN. (B, picnic L,D)

KATHMANDU

After breakfast, enjoy a visit to Kathmandu Durbar Square, a complex of palaces, courtyards and temples, built between the 12th and 18th centuries, it used to be the seat of ancient Malla Kings of Kathmandu. It is the place where kings of Nepal are crowned, and their coronations solemnized. An intriguing piece here is the 17th century stone inscription set into the wall of the palace with writings in 15 languages. Probably the most famous building here is the Kumari Bahal, richly decorated with beautiful woodcarvings, which is home to the Royal Kumari, the Living Goddess, and a manifestation of the great goddess Durga. Nearby is the former Royal Palace, is a Mall Dynasty dwelling, once considerably more extensive than today. Within the courtyard of Nassal Chowk, originally hosted dramatic dance performances, and now is the coronation site of the Shah kings and contains some of the finest wood carvings you will see anywhere in the kingdom. The 14th century Jagannath Mandir is the oldest temple in the area, its steps carved with inscriptions in many languages; nearby Taleju Mandir is one of the largest and finest temples in the Valley.

Delve deep into Nepalese culture and religious history on today's tour. Swayambhunath Stupa is a UNESCO WORLD Heritage Site and one of the most sacred Buddhist shrines of Nepal. The area surrounding the stupa is filled with smaller temples, painted images and numerous statues of Tantric and shamanistic deities. Swayambhunath Stupa is one of the crowning glories of Kathmandu Valley architecture and the most ancient and enigmatic of the Valley's holy shrines; its golden-spired stupa tops a wooded hillock. Records of its history date as far as the 5th century, but its origins are believed to be older. It is the Kathmandu Valley's most sacred Buddhist shrine and while its worshippers include the Vajrayana Buddhists of northern Nepal and Tibet, Newari Buddhists are the most fervent devotees.

You are responsible for confirming with the United States Department of State or the representative government agency of the country to which you are traveling to confirm the requirements for visas and/or other requirements for admission to your destination. Any fines, penalties, payments, or expenditures incurred as a result of such documents not meeting the requirements of those authorities will be your sole responsibility.

REAL ID: Beginning May 7, 2025, if you plan to use your state-issued ID or license to fly within the U.S., it is your responsibility to make sure it is REAL ID compliant. If you are not sure if your ID complies, please check with your local state Department of Motor Vehicles or visit www.tsa.gov/real-id.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS: It is the responsibility of each Traveler to obtain and carry a valid passport, visa(s), and all other documents required by applicable government regulations. When traveling domestically or internationally, the U.S. Transportation Security Administration (TSA) and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) advise that everyone carry acceptable identification in order to board a flight. Acceptable identification can be found at <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/acceptable-ids>. The name, date of birth and gender that appears on the identification card must exactly match the same such data that is listed on airline ticket(s) and booking records. You acknowledge any failure to strictly comply with these requirements may result in denied boarding or an undue delay at an airport security checkpoint causing Traveler to miss flight(s), and subsequent scheduled travel bookings on cruises and tours.

Travel documents include, without limitation, airline tickets, hotel vouchers, tour vouchers, or any other document (whether in electronic form or otherwise) used to confirm an arrangement with a service provider. Travel documents may be subject to certain conditions and/or restrictions such as, but not limited to, being non-refundable, non-date-changeable, and subject to cancellation and/or amendment fees. Travel documents cannot be transferred to another person to use. All airline tickets must be issued in the name of the passport/photo identity holder. An incorrect name on a booking may result in an inability to use that booking and the booking being cancelled. Any errors in names, dates, and timings may result in an inability to use that booking and the booking being cancelled. Any errors in names, dates, and timings on your documentation will be your responsibility if we are not advised at the time of booking. Please reconfirm your flights at least 24 hours prior to departure.

PRE-DEPARTURE INFORMATION: Upon receipt of your registration and deposit, we will send you an electronic pre-departure packet containing all the information you need to prepare for your tour, including the complete itinerary, packing checklist, required documents, insurance information, etc.

FINAL DOCUMENTS: Electronic final documents and air e-tickets will be sent to you approximately two weeks prior to departure, provided all monies have been paid in full.

TRANSPORTATION

AIR TRANSPORTATION: Your program does not include international airfare. If you require assistance, contact Classic Escapes.

FREQUENT FLYER MILEAGE: Check on the airline's website to enquire who their partners are. Obtain frequent flyer mileage on any of these carriers. Present your frequent flyer card for all flight check-ins and keep the boarding passes until you receive a statement with the mileage credit.

TRANSFERS: Roundtrip airport transfers are included in the tour for guests arriving on group flights. If travelers make their own air arrangements, they will be subject to extra transfer fees.

FLIGHT CONFIRMATION: We strongly suggest that you reconfirm exact flight times with the carrier prior to departure. Air travelers are required to check in at least 2 hours prior to departure time for domestic flights and 3 hours for international flights and must report to the gate at least 30 minutes prior to departure time. Failure to comply may result in the loss of the seat to another passenger.

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS: Federal law prohibits passengers from bringing hazardous materials on the aircraft. Federal law forbids the carriage of hazardous materials aboard aircraft in the passenger's luggage or on the passenger's person. A violation can result in five years' imprisonment and penalties of $250,000 or more (49 U.S.C. 5124). Hazardous materials include explosives, compressed gases, flammable liquids and solids, oxidizers, poisons, corrosives, and radioactive materials. Examples: Paints, lighter fluid, fireworks, tear gases, oxygen bottles, and radiopharmaceuticals. There are special exceptions for small quantities (up to 70 ounces total) of medicinal and toilet articles carried in the passenger's luggage and certain smoking materials carried on the passenger's person. For further information, each passenger should contact the relevant airline representative(s) on their itinerary. Restrictions on hazardous materials are listed <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/prohibited-items>.

INSECTICIDE NOTICE: Some countries require insecticide spraying of aircraft prior to a flight or while you are on the aircraft. We recommend that you refer to the Department of Transportation's list of airports in countries that require airlines to treat the passenger cabin with insecticides prior to the flight or while on the aircraft available at <https://www.dot.gov/office-policy/aviation-policy/aircraft-disinsection-requirements>.

BAGGAGE & FEES: Additional fees for baggage may apply. Please contact your airline or refer to its website for detailed information regarding its checked baggage policies. On average, international flights from the USA allow one piece of checked luggage, not exceeding 50 pounds, plus a carry-on piece not exceeding 15 pounds; however, we always recommend that you check your airline's policy just before departure, as luggage limitations are always subject to change. There may also be luggage and weight restrictions for your destination and that information will be forwarded to you with your pre-departure material and also listed on your final documents.

AIRLINE CLAUSE: The airlines concerned are not to be held liable for any act, omission, or event during the time the passengers are not on board their planes or conveyance. The passengers' tickets in use by the airline or by other carriers concerned when issued shall constitute the sole contract between the airlines and the purchaser of these tickets and/or passengers.

DELAYS: We cannot be held liable for any delays or additional costs incurred as a result of airlines not running to schedule. Any additional land or air fees imposed on account of airline delays will be borne by the traveler.

It is your responsibility to ensure you are aware of any health requirements, health advisories, or health travel restrictions applicable to your travel destinations and to ensure that you carry all necessary vaccination documentation. Classic Escapes is not responsible for providing you with this information. Travel carriers and local authorities at travel destinations may require specific testing prior to boarding and/or upon arrival at your destination, including, but not limited to, a temperature check as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. You may be denied entry onto your carrier and/or entry upon arrival at your destination or be required to self-quarantine at your destination and upon your return to the United States. You must comply with local government regulations. Any additional costs are your responsibility. Check the State Department Web site <http://travel.state.gov>, for relevant information relating to travel to specific destinations, and the Center for Disease Control <http://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/> relating to health issues related to travel.
